“ I will forever be grateful to the TSC Alliance for funding my research and for their support throughout the grant process. Having a leading TSC organization believe in my work at an early stage of my career was invaluable.”

Nicola Alesi, PhD, Brigham and Women's Hospital

We invest in early-career researchers to drive innovative TSC research and to foster a diverse group of researchers dedicated to our shared mission. In 2023, we funded four awards to postdoctoral fellows and early-stage investigators. In 2024, we anticipate awarding three or four awards to postdoctoral fellows and early-stage investigators depending on merit,
